Teach Your Little Owls to Fly With Money Talks

The first step to teaching your kids about money is talking about money.

- Ask questions. If you're going out to eat, talk about the price difference between the options, and ask them which they would choose. If they select the more expensive, talk through what you might have to give up later in the week.
- Make them part of your budgeting. If you're doing any kind of financial planning for the year, solicit input from your kids. Enlist them in your saving goals—no one watches you more closely than your kids, so they're natural accountability partners! If you're uncomfortable revealing too much of your financial picture, you can keep the discussions high level, but involving them makes money less abstract.
- Open a youth savings account at LeRoy Federal Credit Union. This is the best way to help them learn to save for what they find meaningful in life. A lifetime of good savings habits can start now!

The Stop-DWI display will be set up in our lobby, courtesy of the Genesee County Youth Bureau, April 3rd-April 7th.

Thank You!

We want to thank our members for your patience with us during the power outage in March! Please remember to check WBTA, The Batavian or our website (the login page) for any announcements such as we're closing early, closed, or open but with no working phones!
