The recipient will be selected based on character, academic performance, involvement in community service, extracurricular activities, and the information provided through references and essay responses. Applications are due by May 20, 2022. Applicant must be a member to apply.

National
Credit Union
Youth Month

April 2022

SUPPORTED BY

Dreaming big doesn't mean you need to start with big actions. The first small step is usually the hardest, but once it's taken, you can use momentum to propel you forward. This year's theme for National Credit Union Youth Month is "Save Small. Dream Big. at your credit union." It uses the image of a magical rainbow with a wish-fulfilling gold star at the end. We want to tell young members that their dreams are attainable, no matter how big they are.

LeRoy Federal Credit Union has tools to help fulfill these dreams. With a youth saving account that earns compound interest, young members can deposit small amounts on a regular basis and watch their savings grow "like magic." The earlier they start a savings account, the more it will grow, and the easier it will be to achieve their dreams. Learning this good financial habit at a young age will set them up on the path of successful financial well-being.

We'd like to thank the New York Credit Union Foundation for their help in purchasing a new, up-to-date, bill counter! We appreciate all that you do!
